ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

In this Agreement, the words "we," "our," "us," and "Credit Union" mean First Central Credit Union or its successors. "You" and "your" mean any person who signs this Agreement or uses the Card. "The Card" means any credit card issued to you or those designated by you under the terms of this Agreement. "Use of the Card" means any procedure used by you, or someone authorized by you, to make a purchase or obtain a cash advance whether or not the purchase or advance is evidenced by a signed written document. "Unauthorized use of the Card" means the use of the Card by someone other than you who does not have actual, implied, or apparent authority for such use, and from which you receive no benefit.

SECURITY. YOU SPECIFICALLY GRANT US A CONSENSUAL SECURITY INTEREST IN ALL INDIVIDUAL AND JOINT ACCOUNTS YOU HAVE WITH US NOW AND IN THE FUTURE TO SECURE REPAYMENT OF CREDIT EXTENSIONS MADE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. THE GRANTING OF THIS SECURITY INTEREST IS A CONDITION FOR THE ISSUANCE OF ANY CARD, WHICH YOU MAY USE DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, TO OBTAIN EXTENSIONS OF CREDIT UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. Shares and deposits in an Individual Retirement Account or any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law if given are not subject to the security interest you are giving.

ADDITIONAL SECURITY. If you have other loans with us, now or in the future, collateral securing those loans may also secure your obligations under this Agreement. Please read any security agreement you sign in order to determine if the collateral also secures your obligations under this Agreement and other agreements you have with us.

1) Extensions of Credit. If your Application is approved, the Credit Union may, at its discretion, establish a line of credit in your name and cause one or more Cards to be issued to you or those designated by you. In such event, you authorize the Credit Union to pay for your account, all items reflecting credit purchases, balance transfers, and cash advances obtained through use of the Card. You may not use your Card for any illegal purpose or transaction. The Credit Union may refuse to authorize any transaction that it believes to be illegal or that poses an undue risk or illegality. If we do process any transaction which ultimately is determined to have been for an illegal purpose, you agree that you will remain liable to us under this Agreement for any such transaction notwithstanding its illegal nature. You agree that any illegal use of the Card will be deemed an act of default under this Agreement. You further agree to waive any right to take legal action against the Credit Union for illegal use of the Card and to indemnify and hold the Credit Union and VISA® International, Inc. harmless from and against any lawsuits, other legal action or liability that results directly or indirectly from such illegal use.

2) Joint Applicant Liability. If this Agreement is executed by more than one person, each of you shall be jointly and individually liable to us for all charges made to the account, including applicable fees. In addition, you agree that each of you designates the other as agent for the purpose of making purchases extended under this Agreement and each use of your account shall be an extension of credit to all. Notice to one of you shall constitute notice to all. Any joint cardholder may remove him/herself from responsibility for future purchases at any time by notifying us in writing. However, removal from the account does not release you from any liability already incurred.

3) Others Using Your Account. If you allow anyone else to use your Card, you will be liable for all credit extended to such persons. You promise to pay for all purchases, balance transfers, and cash advances made by anyone whom you authorize to use your Card, whether or not you notify us that he or she will be using it. If someone else is authorized to use your Card and you want to end that person's privilege, you must notify us in writing, and if he or she has a Card, you must return the Card with your written notice for it to be effective.

4) Credit Limits. You promise the payments made for your account resulting from use of the Card will, at no time, cause the outstanding balance in your account to exceed your credit limit as disclosed to you at the time you received your Card or as adjusted from time to time at the discretion of the Credit Union.

5) Promise to Pay. You promise to pay us in U.S. dollars for (a) all purchases, cash advances, and balance transfers made by you or anyone whom you authorize to use the Card or account; (b) INTEREST CHARGES and other charges or fees; (c) collection costs and attorney's fees as permitted by applicable law and any costs incurred in the recovery of the Card; and (d) credit in excess of your credit limit that we may extend to you. At the end of each monthly billing cycle, you will be furnished with a periodic statement showing (i) the "previous balance" (the outstanding balance in the account at the beginning of the billing cycle), (ii) the amount of all cash advances, purchases and INTEREST CHARGES posted to your account during the billing cycle, (iii) the amount of all payments and credits posted to your account during the billing cycle, and (iv) the "new balance" which is the sum of (i) and (ii) less (iii).

You agree to pay on or before the "Payment Due Date" shown on the periodic statement either the entire "New Balance," or the minimum payment shown on the statement. Generally, the "minimum payment" will equal 3% of the New Balance or $25, whichever is greater. The minimum payment may also include any amounts in excess of the credit limit established by us and any past due minimum payments. For your account to be considered current and to avoid a Late Payment Fee, we must receive your payment of at least the Minimum Payment Due for the statement period by the Payment Due Date shown on your statement. If the New Balance is $25 or less, you will pay in full. You may make extra payments in advance of the due date without a penalty, and you may repay any funds advanced, credit extended, or amount outstanding at any time without a penalty for early payment. Regardless of the amount of any extra payment during a given month, a monthly payment will be required the following month if a balance remains in your account. The Credit Union may also, from time to time and at its option, offer you the opportunity to skip a payment. If you decide to skip a payment, an INTEREST CHARGE will continue to accrue on the balance in the account at the applicable periodic rate in accordance with this Agreement, and the payment terms applicable to the account prior to the skipped payment will automatically resume in the month immediately following the month in which you have skipped a payment.

6) Cost of Credit. You will pay an INTEREST CHARGE for all advances made against your account. Unless we provide otherwise in connection with a promotional offer, cash advances (including convenience checks) and balance transfers will incur an INTEREST CHARGE from the date they are posted to your account and there is no grace period. Purchases of financial instruments such as money orders and engagement in other financial transactions using your Card such as wire transfers will be treated as cash advances and there is no grace period for such transactions. If you have paid your account in full by the due date shown on the previous monthly statement, or there is no previous balance, you have not less than 25 days to repay your account balance before an INTEREST CHARGE on new purchases will be imposed. Otherwise, there is no grace period and new purchases will incur an INTEREST CHARGE from the date they are posted to the account.

If your Card features an introductory rate, for the first six billing cycles of your account you will pay an Introductory Rate INTEREST CHARGE for purchases, balance transfers, and cash advances, at the introductory rate daily periodic rate and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE as set forth in the Account Opening Disclosures that will be provided to you after your application is approved. The Account Opening Disclosures are incorporated by reference into this Agreement. After the introductory rate period, or if your account does not feature an introductory rate, the daily periodic rate used to compute the INTEREST CHARGE for all advances is variable, and the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE may increase. The variable rate is based on an index (the "Index"), which is the Prime Rate as published in the Money Rates section of The Wall Street Journal on the first business day of each calendar quarter and is subject to change quarterly. Any change in the Index will be effective on the first day of the billing cycle following the date of change. An increase in the Index will result in an increase in the daily periodic rate, which in turn, may result in higher payments. We will add a margin to the Index to determine the interest rates for your account. The purchases, cash advances, and balance transfer margins, daily periodic rates, and ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES for your account are set forth in the Account Opening Disclosures. Rates are subject to change in the future based on changes in the Index. The daily periodic rate for all advances will never be greater than the highest allowed by law (currently, 0.049315%, 18% ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE).

The INTEREST CHARGE is figured by applying the applicable daily periodic rate to the Average Daily Balance of your account for each feature category, including certain current transactions. Feature categories include purchases, balance transfers, and cash advances. The Average Daily Balance is arrived at by taking the beginning balance of each feature category each day and adding any new transactions to the balance, except if you have paid your account in full by the Payment Due Date shown on the previous monthly statement or there is no previous balance, new purchases are not added to the purchases balance. Balance transfers may be shown on your statement in the Promotions feature category. When determining balances, we may combine feature category balances that have the same periodic rate and other INTEREST CHARGE terms. We then subtract any payments or credits and unpaid INTEREST CHARGES allocated to the feature category balance for the day. This gives us the daily balance for the feature category. The daily balances for each feature category are then added together and divided by the number of days in the billing cycle. The result is the Average Daily Balance for each feature category. The periodic INTEREST CHARGE is determined by multiplying each feature category Average Daily Balance by the number of days in the billing cycle and applying the applicable daily periodic rate to the product. The total INTEREST CHARGE for each statement period is the sum of the periodic INTEREST CHARGES for each feature category plus any non-periodic INTEREST CHARGES.

7) Other Charges. The following other charges (fees) will be added to your account, as applicable:

- ATM Fee. If you obtain a cash advance by using an automated teller machine, you may be charged any amounts imposed upon the Credit Union by the owner or operator of the machine. Any charge made under this paragraph will be added to the balance of your account and treated as a purchase.
- Collection Cost Fee. You agree to pay all reasonable costs of collection, including court costs and attorney's fees imposed and any costs incurred in the recovery of the Card.
- Returned Payment Fee. If a check, share draft or other payment order used to make a payment on your account is returned unpaid, you may be charged a Returned Payment Fee as set forth in the Account Opening Disclosures for each check or other payment order returned. In no event will the Returned Payment Fee exceed the amount of the minimum payment due for the applicable statement period.
- Late Payment Fee. If you are 10 or more days late in making a minimum required payment, a Late Payment Fee as set forth in the Account Opening Disclosures may be added to your account. In no event will the Late Payment Fee exceed the amount of the minimum payment due for the applicable statement period.
- Document Copy Fee. You may be charged a fee for each copy of a sales draft or statement that you request (except when the request is made in conjunction with a billing error made by the Credit Union). This fee will be disclosed to you at the time of your request.

Third-party ATM surcharges, Returned Payment Fees, Late Payment Fees, and other fees as set forth in this section will be added to the balance of your account and treated as new purchases.

8) Credit Insurance. If available, credit insurance is not required for any extension of credit under this Agreement. However, you may purchase any credit insurance available through the Credit Union and have the premium added to the outstanding balance in your account. If you elect to do so, you will be given the necessary disclosures and documents separately.

9) Liability for Unauthorized Use. You may be liable for the unauthorized use of your Card. If you notice the loss or theft of your Card or a possible unauthorized use of your Card, you should call us immediately at

(800) 780-7101 (M-F 9 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.; Sat. 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.)

(800) 682-6075 (After Hours)

You also may write to us at:

First Central Credit Union
6201 Sanger Ave.
Waco, TX 76710

Although you may write to notify us of unauthorized use, calling us immediately at the telephone number above is the best way to keep your possible losses down.

Under VISA's zero liability policy, you will not be liable for unauthorized use of your VISA Card once you notify us orally or in writing of the loss, theft, or possible unauthorized use. VISA's zero liability policy does not apply if you are negligent or fraudulent in the handling of your account or your Card, nor does it apply in the case of cash advances obtained at an ATM, except for U.S. ATM transactions sent over the VISA and Plus networks.

You will not be liable for any unauthorized use that occurs after you notify us. You may, however, be liable for unauthorized use that occurs before your notice to us. In any case, your liability will not exceed $50.00.

10) Crediting of Payments. We do not charge for payments made by mail or other standard payment methods approved by us. If we charge a fee for any expedited payment service we offer, that fee appears in the Account Opening Disclosures or will be disclosed to you at the time you request the service. All payments made on your account at the address designated for payment on the monthly periodic statement or by way of any other approved payment methods will generally be credited to your account on the date of receipt. If the date of receipt for a mailed payment is not a business day, your payment may not be credited until the first business day following receipt. Payments received in person by one of our branch employees before the close of business will receive same-day credit. If payment is made at any location other than the address designated on the periodic statement or by any other standard payment method we accept, credit for such payment may be delayed up to five days. A payment submitted in the form of a check or other paper document may be converted to an electronic transaction through procedures established by the National Automated Clearing House Association. If this occurs, the original check or other document sent to us will not be retained, but a copy will be available if requested. To the extent permitted by applicable law, all required minimum payments on your account will be applied first to collection costs, then to any INTEREST CHARGE and other fees due, and then to the unpaid principal balance. Payments made in excess of the required minimum payment will be applied first to the balances with the highest interest rate, if applicable. Interest paid or agreed to be paid shall not exceed the maximum amount permissible under applicable law, and in any contingency whatsoever, if we shall receive anything of value deemed interest under applicable law which would exceed the maximum amount of interest permissible under applicable law, the excessive interest shall be applied to the reduction of the unpaid principal amount or refunded to you.

11) Default. You will be in default: (1) if you fail to make any payment on time; (2) if you fail to keep any promises you have made under this or any other Agreement with the Credit Union; (3) if you become insolvent or are the subject of an order for relief under Title 11 of the U.S. Code (Bankruptcy); (4) if you die; (5) if anyone tries, by legal process, to take any of your money in the Credit Union; (6) if you have given the Credit Union false or inaccurate information in obtaining your Card or in connection with any periodic update of your information; (7) if you use your Card or account for an illegal transaction; or (8) if anything happens which the Credit Union reasonably believes endangers your ability to repay what you owe.

12) Acceleration. If you are in default, the Credit Union may, without prior notice to you, call any amounts you still owe immediately due and payable plus INTEREST CHARGES, which shall continue to accrue until the entire amount is paid. You expressly waive any right to notice or demand, including but not limited to, demand upon default, notice of intention to accelerate, and notice of acceleration. The Card remains the property of the Credit Union at all times, and you agree to immediately surrender the Card upon demand of the Credit Union.

13) Telephone Monitoring and Contacting You. In order for us to service your account or to collect any amounts you may owe, you agree that we, our agents, and our service provider company may monitor and/or record any telephone communications with you. By providing us with your telephone numbers, including any cellular telephone number, you represent that you are the subscriber and/or customary user of each telephone number provided. To the extent permitted by applicable law, you agree that we, our agents and our service provider company may contact you for any purpose (including collection purposes) at any telephone number or email address you have provided to us, or from which you call or email us, or which we have obtained and believe you can be contacted at. We may contact you by voice, text, email, or any other available communication method, and we may use any available technology to contact you such as an autodialer and/or a prerecorded or artificial voice. Message and data rates may apply. If you change, cancel, or reassign any of your telephone numbers or email addresses, you agree to notify us promptly. You agree to hold us harmless for any misrepresentation or non-compliance with the terms of this section.

14) Transaction Authorizations. Some transactions on your account may require prior approval. These prior approvals are called "authorizations." We may limit the number of authorizations we will give the account during any certain period of time (day, weekend, week) and we may deny an authorization if we suspect that your account is being used without your permission. If our authorization system is not working fully, we may be unable to give an authorization even though the transaction would not exceed your credit limit. You agree we will not be liable for failing to give an authorization. Transactions at some participating merchants (such as hotels, car rental companies, restaurants and gas stations) may result in authorizations for amounts greater than the actual purchase amount, which will have the effect of making less credit available on your account for several days (usually until the date the actual purchase amount is received from the merchant).

15) Refusal to Authorize Transactions. We may decline any transaction on your account for any of the following reasons: (1) operational reasons, (2) your account is in default (including exceeding your credit limit) or you are delinquent on any obligation owed to us, (3) suspected fraudulent or unlawful activity, or (4) any other reason we choose. In addition, we reserve the right to deny transactions or authorizations from merchants whom we believe may be engaging in Internet gambling or are otherwise engaged in such business.

16) Additional Benefits/Card Enhancements. The Credit Union may from time to time offer additional services to your account at no additional cost to you. You understand that the Credit Union is not obligated to offer such services and may withdraw or change them at any time.

17) Convenience Checks. The Credit Union may, at its discretion, issue checks to you which may be used for any purpose other than making a payment for credit to your account. By signing any such check, you authorize the Credit Union to pay the item for the amount indicated and post such amount as a cash advance to your account. The Credit Union does not have to pay any item, which would cause the outstanding balance in your account to exceed your credit limit. Any fees we may charge in connection with the use of convenience checks are set forth in the Account Opening Disclosure.

18) Continuation of Credit. The Credit Union may from time to time request personal information from you for the purpose of updating your credit status, according to normal credit procedures. Your failure to provide such information when requested by the Credit Union may result in suspension of your line of credit privileges under this Agreement, including your ability to obtain any future advances by any means.

19) International Transactions. If you effect an international transaction with your VISA Card, the rate of exchange between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing the international transaction will be a rate selected by VISA from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate VISA itself receives or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date; and in each instance, plus up to a 1% Foreign Transaction Fee. The Foreign Transaction Fee will apply to all international purchase, cash disbursement, and account credit transactions even if there is no currency conversion. There is no grace period within which to repay international transactions in order to avoid the Foreign Transaction Fee.

20) VISA Emergency Services. You acknowledge that we may provide personal data concerning you to VISA U.S.A., its Members, or their respective contractors for the purpose of providing you with VISA

Emergency Cash and Emergency Card Replacement Services, and you consent to the release of your information for these purposes.

21) Termination or Changes. The Credit Union may terminate this Agreement at any time subject to such notice as may be required by applicable law. You may terminate this Agreement, by written notice, as to future advances at any time. Termination by either party shall not affect your obligation to repay any payments made for your account resulting from use of the Card as well as INTEREST CHARGES and other related charges. The Credit Union may add to, change, or delete the terms of this Agreement, including the method of calculating the periodic rate, at any time subject to such notice as may be required by applicable law. If you use your Card or account to make a purchase or cash advance after having been given notice of a change in terms, you agree that the existing balance in your account at the time of that use will be subject to the new terms, as shall subsequent uses, to the extent permitted by law.

22) Credit Information. You authorize the Credit Union to investigate your credit standing and employment history when opening or reviewing your account. You authorize the Credit Union to disclose information regarding your account to credit bureaus and creditors who inquire about your credit standing.

23) Notification Address for Information Reported to Consumer Reporting Agencies. We may report the status and payment history of your account to credit reporting agencies each month. If you believe that the information we have reported is inaccurate or incomplete, please notify us in writing at First Central Credit Union, P. O. Box 21809, Waco, TX 76702-1809. Please include your name, address, home telephone number and account number, and identify the information you believe is incorrect. If your notification relates to an incident of identity theft, we will require a copy of your identity theft report filed with law enforcement authorities.

24) Statements and Notices. Statements and notices will be mailed to you at the most recent address you have given the Credit Union. You agree to give us prompt notice of any change in your name, home address, mailing address, email address, telephone number, or place of employment.

25) Copy Received. By signing the Application, using the Card or the account, or by authorizing any other person to use the Card or account, you agree to all the terms and conditions and promise to perform all the obligations, requirements, and duties contained in this Agreement, and if you signed the Credit Card Application, you acknowledge that you have received a copy of this Agreement. You agree to notify each Cardholder and authorized user that their use of the Card or account is subject to this Agreement.

26) Military Covered Borrowers. If you are a member of the Armed Forces or a dependent of any such member covered by the federal Military Lending Act, federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: The costs associated with credit insurance premiums; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account). To receive an oral disclosure of the foregoing and information concerning your payment obligation under this Agreement, please call (800) 780-7101. The Promise to Pay section of this Agreement also sets forth the terms of your payment obligation.

27) Additional Provisions. Each provision of this Agreement must be considered as part of the total Agreement and cannot, in any way, be severed from it. However, you also agree that should any part of the Agreement be found invalid, it will in no way affect the remainder of the Agreement. You understand the validity, construction, and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas and federal law. Use of your Card is also subject to the policies and rules of VISA International, as applicable and in effect from time to time, which do not conflict with the terms of this Agreement. The Credit Union does not warrant any merchandise or services purchased by you with the Card. All purchases and cash advances are extended at the option of the merchant or cash advancing financial institution and the Credit Union is not responsible for refusal of any merchant, financial institution, or ATM to honor your Card or convenience checks issued on your account. We can accept late payments or partial payments or checks or money orders marked "payment in full" without losing any of our rights under this Agreement. We can also delay enforcing any of our rights under this Agreement without losing them.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS: KEEP THIS DOCUMENT FOR FUTURE USE

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What to Do if You Find a Mistake on Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

First Central Credit Union
Attn: Credit Card Department
P.O. Box 21809
Waco, TX 76702-1809

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your statement, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe your statement is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.

The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.

While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balances. We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your statement is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your statement. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

Your Rights if You are Dissatisfied with Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase. To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase. If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

First Central Credit Union
Attn: Credit Card Department
P.O. Box 21809
Waco, TX 76702-1809

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.
